Make your home more energy efficient and save on taxes by replacing your doors with insulated Apple doors.

GARAGE DOORS

ENTRY DOORS

PATIO DOORS

You can earn up to $1,500 in energy tax credit when you install qualifying insulated doors on your home. This applies to Apple's entry doors, patio doors and garage doors. Let us show you how to make your home more energy efficient and reduce your taxes too! Call us today.

Tax Credit Overview

Applies to qualifying doors as follows.

- Qualifying purchases through 2010.
- Equals 30% of the product purchased.
- Maximum credit $1500.
- Applicable years are 2006, 2007, 2009 and 2010.
- Products must have a U factor of 0.30.*
- The tax credit applies to qualifying insulated doors installed on an insulated home or garage as long as it is part of the taxpayer's principal residence, has a U factor of 0.30, and a means to control air infiltration at the door perimeter.
- If the taxpayer already claimed a full $500 credit in 2006-2007, additional $1000 credit is available for 2009 and 2010.

*Qualifying products must be certified by the manufacturer and will vary based on meeting IRS guidelines.

How it works...

Entry & Patio Doors

Purchase a 3-0 X 6-8 entry door with 1/2 lite insulated glass. Cost $2,400. Tax credit savings would be $720 (2400 X .30).

Garage Doors

Purchase a 16 X 7 insulated garage door with decorative glass. Cost $1,800. Tax credit savings would be $540 ($1800 X .30).

Haas Door Company “Energy Tax Credit Statement”

If you have purchased a Haas Door Company 200, 600, 700, 800, or 900 series insulated garage door between January 1, 2009 and December 31, 2010, you may be entitled to an energy tax credit under the new stimulus legislation. The following checklist will assist you in determining whether you qualify for the tax credit. All boxes must be checked in order to qualify.

- Your new garage door is insulated (i.e., reduces heat loss or gain).
- Your garage or building is insulated.
- The door was installed at your principal residence in the United States.
- The door must be installed after December 31, 2008 and before January 1, 2011.
- The door is expected to remain in service for at least five years.

The maximum tax credit for all energy-efficient purchases of doors and windows is $1,500 (installation labor not included).

The installation must include a perimeter seal and a bottom seal.
